

Louisville 2001

► Junior members exhibited 152 entries before judge John Tucker of North Platte, Neb., Sunday morning, Nov. 11, at the 2001 North American International Livestock Exposition (NAILE) in Louisville, Ky.

► Deanna Scrimger, Olympic coordinator for Certified Angus Beef LLC (CAB), gave members an overview of the program's participation as an official branded beef supplier to the 2002 Olympic Winter Games in Salt Lake City.

► Right: Lou Ann Adams, director of information services for the American Angus Association, showed attendees of Monday's educational forum how to access and use the Internet services available to members through the Association's Web site, www.angus.org.

► The American Angus Auxiliary kicked off its 50th anniversary celebration during the 50th Anniversary Reception, Sunday, Nov. 11. Auxiliary members pictured are (from left) Sandra McCurry, Mount Hope, Kan.; Bette Votaw, Wellfleet, Neb.; Jane Fowler, Zebulon, N.C.; and Velma Kringer, Charlestown, Ind.

► Seven candidates, including Jot Hartley (above) of Vinita, Okla., vied for five positions on the American Angus Association Board of Directors. The seven presented their campaign platforms and answered questions at the candidate-delegate forum Sunday afternoon.

► Judge James Pipkin, Republic, Mo., pulls his top picks from the lineup during the ROV super-point Angus female show. Exhibitors paraded 202 entries during the Monday morning show.

► Outgoing president Howard Hillman, Sioux Falls, S.D., addressed delegates and members attending the 2001 American Angus Association Annual Meeting. Representing 43 states and Canada, 317 delegates conducted the official business of the Association.

► Above: Sheri Spader, Rosendale, Mo., addressed attendees of the American Angus Association Annual Banquet after a special tribute to her husband, the former Association executive vice president. Richard Spader was inducted posthumously into the Angus Heritage Foundation. Sherri was accompanied at the podium by sons Jared (left) and Brett (right).

► Right: 2001 Miss American Angus Lacey Robinson of Montgomery City, Mo., crowns Cortney Hill-Dukehart of Sykesville, Md., as the 2002 royalty.

► Judge James Pipkin, Republic, Mo., discusses the bulls in his championship lineup before naming the grand champion, Tuesday, Nov. 13, during the ROV Angus Show.

CONTINUED ON PAGE 118