

Junior champions dominate North American ROV event

With the exception of the reserve grand champion female, entries from the junior divisions and age groups took home the grand and reserve grand banners at this year's North American International Livestock Exposition (NAILE). This show, the second Super Roll of Victory stop of the season, was judged by Bob Greaves of Hampton, Ga. A total of 160 head, comparable to last year's number, were paraded by more than 180 exhibitors. Premiums totaling $13,000 from the North American International Livestock Exposition and the American Angus Assn. were distributed among the competitors.
