

RA Beartooth Aberdeen, WK Molly Are National Champions

*Grand and intermediate champion bull
RA Beartooth Aberdeen*

*Grand and intermediate champion female
WK Molly 1266*

The National Western Stock Show hosted the 1993 National Angus Show Jan. 15-16 in Denver. The Roll of Victory (ROV) Super Point Show saw 260 cattle from across the nation compete for top awards and ROV points.

The cattle were evaluated by judge Jarold Callahan, Oklahoma City, Okla., and associate judge Glenn Cantrell, Rush Springs, Okla.

RA Beartooth Aberdeen won the grand champion banner in the bull competition after winning the intermediate division. The June 1991 bull is sired by TC Stockman. He is owned by Mark and Janet Richardson, Milton, Ind., and Beartooth Ranch, Columbus, Mont. Aberdeen weighed in at 2,044 pounds, had a frame score of 8.7, 0.64 inch fat depth, and 41.8 centimeter scrotal circumference.

The reserve grand champion bull was WK T-Bone owned by Whitestone Krebs, Gordon, Neb., and Middlefield Farms, Fort Collins, Colo. The March 1992 entry first won the spring bull calf division and is sired by Da Es Ro Casey 629, the 1992 National Western grand champion bull. T-Bone weighed in at 1,283 pounds, had an 8.0 frame score, 0.28 inch fat depth, and 37.0 centimeter scrotal circumference.

In Friday's heifer show, Ty Krebs, Gordon, Neb., exhibited the grand champion entry named WK Molly 1266. The heifer is a May 1991 daughter of Car Don Baxter. She first won the intermediate division. Weighing in at 1,427 pounds, the heifer had an 8.4 frame score and 0.56 inch fat depth.

The reserve grand champion female was the reserve intermediate champion heifer owned by Rachael Richardson, Milton, Ind. The June 1991 heifer is named RA Foundation Lass and is sired by TC Stockman. The heifer weighed 1,592 pounds, had an 8.5 frame score and 0.80 fat depth.
