

Angus Entries, Enthusiasm Up at National Western Stock Show

*Grand and senior champion bull
Big Dry Ranchers Choice 1673*

*Grand and junior champion female
BT Bronwyn 175B*

The 326 head of Angus exhibited at the 1994 National Western Stock Shows Super Roll of Victory (ROV) Angus Show was an increase of 66 head from 1993. The event held Jan. 14-15 in Denver, was judged by Dean Janssen, Bartonville, Ill. Brian Fitzgerald, West Grove, Pa., was associate judge.

The cattle were measured for hip height to obtain a current frame score (FS) and scanned by ultrasound for a backfat (BF) depth measurement. Bulls were measured for scrotal circumference (SC), and all cattle before entering the ring. All information given to the judges, who also were provided with current expected progeny differences (EPDs).

Big Dry Ranchers Choice 1673 won grand champion in the bull competition after winning the senior division. The April 1991 bull is sired by TC Stockman is owned and is owned by Charles McRae, Jordan, Mont., and Harmon Angus Ranch, Lavina, Mont. Ranchers Choice weighed in at 2,530 pounds, had 7.3 FS, .76-inch BF, and 45.5-centimeter SC.

The reserve grand champion bull was OSU 6T6 Ultra senior bull calf champion. The September 1992 bull is sired by SS Traveler 6T6. He is owned by Oklahoma State University, Stillwater; Eddie and Karen Parker, Waurika, Okla. and A Cross Ranch, Eli City, Okla. The bull weighed in at 1,682 pounds, had a 7.4 FS, .28-inch BF, and 38.5 centimeter SC.

This bull was also named grand champion lot in the Angus Sale Bull Show held Thursday Jan. 13. Ultra went on to be the top-selling lot in the Angus bull sale, where he sold for $50,000.

In Friday's 219-head heifer show, Beartooth Ranch, Columbus, Mont., exhibited the grand champion. BT Bronwyn 175B is the name of the grand winner that first topped the junior division. The March 1992 heifer is sired by R&J Maxima. She weighed in at 1,622 pounds, had a 7.2 FS and .56-inch BF.

YR Montana Lass 41B was named the reserve grand champion heifer and first won reserve honors in the junior division. The March 1992 heifer is sired by Leachman Discovery and is owned by Three Rivers Angus Farm, Roanoke, Ind. and Eaglestone Farm, Carlisle Ky. She weighed in at 1,558 pounds, had a 7.4 FS, and .32-inch BF.

Angus show judges Dean Janssen, Bartonville, Ill. (left) and Brian Fitzgerald, West Grove, Pa, said they were looking for brood cow prospects and bulls that would go out and work. They were conscious of size and soundness, preferring moderate-size, freemoving animals.

Miss American Angus Jill Sommers (right) along with queens from several western states did a fine job representing the Angus industry at the National Western Stock Show

THE MILLION CLUB

The American Angus Association auctioned off its 12 millionth registration at the National Western Angus Bull Sale in Denver last month. For those Angus breed history buffs out there, here are the 11 animals made famous by being designated a millionth registration since the first was awarded in 1947:

Registration #1,000,000 — Master Prince of Sunbeam, a Sept. 1944 bull bred by Reverie Knoll Farms, Harrodsburg, Ky., and owned with Sunbeam Farms, Miami, Okla.

Registration #2,000,000 — BPR Eileenmere 1554, a Sept. 1954 bull bred by S.E. Fifield, Olathe, Kan.

Registration #3,000,000 — Matchmaker 24 of JM, a Sept. 1958 bull bred by Frank D. Hansen, Maquoketa, Iowa.

Registration #4,000,000 — Keystone Venture, a Sept. 1961 bull bred by Pennsylvania State University and Curtis Cantrill & Sons, Columbia, Ky.

Registration #5,000,000 — Ankonian Jonah, an April 1964 bull bred by Ankony Angus Corp., Grand Junction, Colo., and owned with Ohio State University, Columbus, and Schearbrook Farms, Clayton, Ohio.

Registration #6,000,000 — Black Watch Nobleman, an April 1966 bull bred by Aristocrat Angus Ranch, Platteville, Colo., and El Capitan Angus Corp., Los Angeles.

Registration #7,000,000 — HMH Blackcap Lucky Lady 43, a May 1970 cow bred by H.M. Harrington, Tulsa, Okla.

Registration #8,000,000 — Goldspur Eight Million, a May 1972 bull bred by Joe Griswold, Miami, Okla.

Registration #9,000,000 — Sayre Patriot, a July 1976 bull bred by Sayre Angus Farm, Phelps, N.Y., and owned with Gallagher Farms, Ghent, N.Y. Ownership was later transferred to Patriot International, Fort Worth, Texas; Garney Cattle Co., Afton, Okla.; and JAC's Ranch, Bentonville, Ark.

The 12 millionth Angus registration was auctioned off prior to the 1994 Angus Bull Sale in Denver. Proceeds from the auction go to support the National Junior Angus Association (NJAA) Foundation, which supports youth, research and education. Dave McMahon of Belle Point Ranch, Lavaca, Ark. purchased the number 12 million for $12,000. Pictured from left are: NJAA directors Brian Brockman, William Donnell; McMahon; and NJAA directors Sarah Hill and Ashley Davis.

Registration #10,000,000 — Rosebank Connection 69, nicknamed "10", an April 1979 bull bred by Rosebank Angus Farm, Germantown, N.Y., and owned with Rally Farms, Millbrook, N.Y., and Brentwood Farms Inc., Brentwood, Tenn.

Registration #11,000,000 — Dameron Linedrive, a May 1985 bull bred by Jeff Dameron Lexington, Ill., and owned with BLC Angus Ranch, Tecumseh, Okla. and Wilson Cattle Co., Cloverdale, Ind.
