

National Western Pen and Carload Show

Angus breeders showcased 46 pens and six carloads of Angus bulls at the 2001 National Western Stock Show (NWSS) Angus Pen and Carload Show, Jan. 13 in Denver, Colo. A panel of three judges including Jim Sitz, Dillon, Mont.; Lynn Frey, Granville, N.D.; and Dick Hubman, Central Point, Ore., evaluated the groups of bulls before selecting the champions in the yards.

Whitestone-Krebs, Gordon, Neb., captured the grand champion carload banner. The load of 10 bulls was sired by WK Gunsmoke, WK Appeal, WK Latitude and Bon-View New Design 1407. The January, February and March 2000 bulls posted an average backfat depth of 0.39 inch (in.), an average scrotal circumference of 38.63 centimeters (cm) and an average weight of 1,233 pounds (lb.).

The January, February and March 2000 load of calves owned by Express Angus Ranch, Yukon, Okla., won reserve grand champion carload honors. The calves by Northern Improvement 4480 GE, A&B Yukon 7150, EXAR On the Money 7654, OSU 6T6 Ultra, Famous 7001, RR Scotchcap 9440 and TC Stockman 365 posted an average backfat depth of 0.33 in., a scrotal circumference of 38.88 cm and an average weight of 1,246 lb.

Whitestone-Krebs, Gordon, Neb., claimed the grand champion honors in the pen show with its late calf champion pen of three bulls. The January and February 2000 bulls sired by WK Appeal posted an average weight of 1,177 lb. They had an average backfat depth of 0.35 in. and an average scrotal circumference of 38.92 cm.

A February 2000 trio of bulls by Connealy Dateline captured the reserve grand champion pen of three bulls for Whitestone-Krebs, Gordon, Neb. The pen that first won early calf champion pen of three posted an average backfat depth of 0.27 in., an average scrotal circumference of 39.58 cm and an average weight of 1,245 lb.
