

121 Head Make Strong Showing at Mississippi's Dixie National

Dixie National grand champion heifer Ellanin Miss World.

Dixie National grand champion bull Greenbrae Chairman.

Numbers shown at the Dixie National just keep growing. Last year claimed one of the biggest Angus shows in recent years, but the 1984 show outdid that. With 121 Angus exhibited at Jackson, Miss., on Feb. 12, the event is earning the title of the South's leading Angus event.

In the 62-head bull competition, judge Jim Gillooly, Washington, Ind., awarded top honors to intermediate champion Greenbrae Chairman. Shown by Chairman Board of Directors, Cloverdale, Ind., this son of Fairfield Hi Guy had previously earned the crowd's approval when he was named intermediate champion.

Reserve grand champion went to the reserve intermediate bull Shadmere Designer 3JS. This son of General JJ Patton is owned by Kevin Swaim and Family, Marshall, Ind., and James Sipe, Carmel, Ind.

A March 1983 daughter of Ken Caryl Mr. Angus 8017 claimed top purple in the female show. She is Ellanin Miss World exhibited by Ellanvannin Farms, Gormley, Ont., and Northcote Angus, Forest, Va.

Cobble Pond Bonnie Kay was named reserve grand champion female for owners Cobble Pond Farm, Sharon, Conn., and Windy Acres Angus, Harrison, Neb. This intermediate champion is a daughter of Progression.

Premier Angus Inc., Cloverdale, Ind., entered progeny of Pine Drive Big Sky to claim firsts in the get-of-sire and junior get classes. Ankony Shadow Isle Ranch, Minatare, Neb., exhibited the best six head.

During the Dixie National the Mississippi Angus Assn. raffled an Angus heifer. Johnny Davis (left), New Albany, and Kenneth Jones (right), Ripley, donated the heifer to the Mississippi association. After a strong raffle ticket sales, the name of Randy Davis, Hattiesburg, was drawn as winner of the heifer. Davis was not present so Mississippi Angus Queen Gayla Jackson, Ripley, and Mississippi Junior Angus President Connie Robins, Ripley, represented the winner.

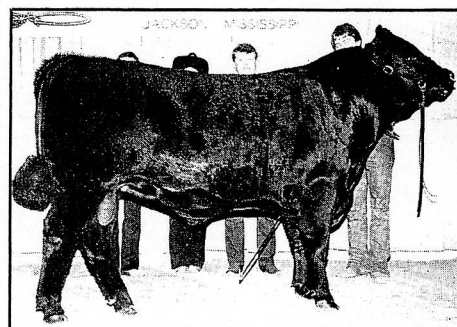

Top contenders from across the country traveled to the Dixie National to make it one of the largest Angus shows in the South.

Greenbrae Chairman, TC Peggy Sue 2135 Reign Over Houston Livestock Show

Angus breeders from as far away as Michigan and Connecticut brought out some of their best to compete at the Houston Livestock Show Feb. 25 in Houston, Texas. Dean Danilson, Auburn, Ala., put the official placings on the 38 heifers and 36 bulls shown.

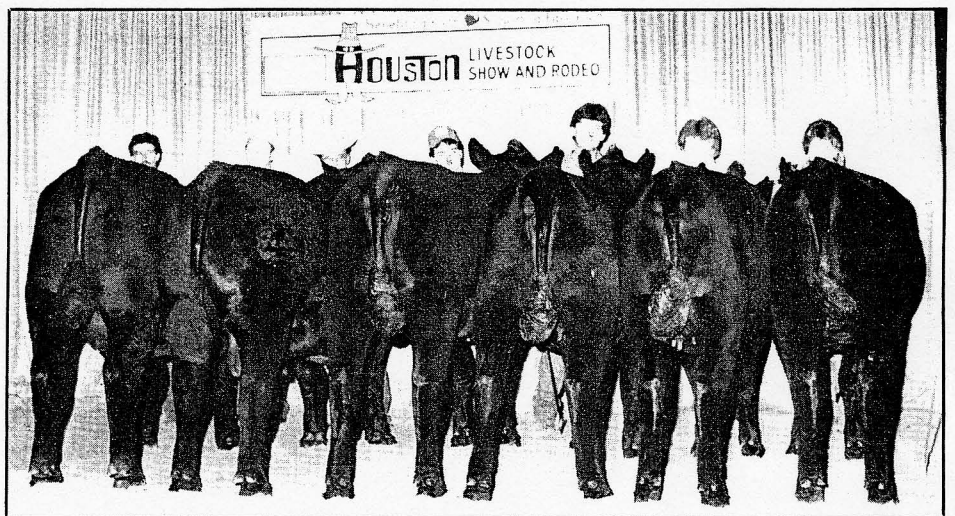

Grand champion bull was Greenbrae Chairman, the popular son of Fairfield Hi Guy owned by the syndicate of breeders known as Chairman Board of Directors, and rooded by Premier Angus Inc., Cloverdale, Ind.

Breathing down "Chairman's" neck in class was second place winner Omegan Royal. This son of Ken Caryl Mr. Angus 8017 took home reserve grand honors for Williamston, Mich., owners Clifford Simmons and Omega Farms.

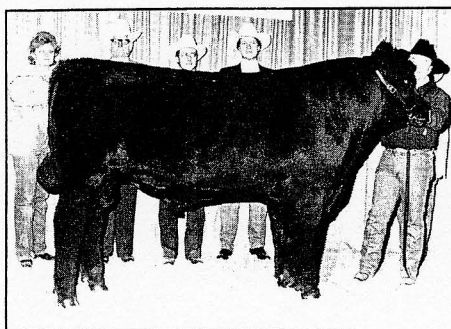

In a competitive female show TC Peggy Sue 2135 outbested other candidates to chalk up yet another win for owner Ty Uden of TC Ranch, Franklin, Neb. This senior calf is a daughter of Dr. Spock.

Reserve grand champion heifer was R&J Esso 1842, a daughter of Perryville Esso Extra 17M, owned by R&J Ranch, Briggs, and Strouds Creek Ranch of Tolar.

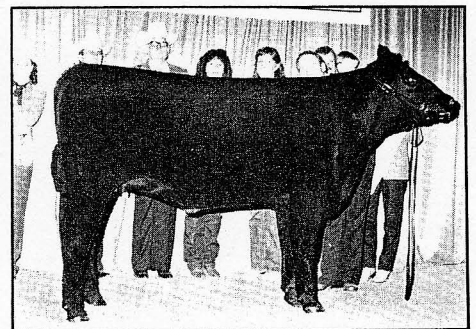

As usual, R&J had their name on several other class winners for the day plus they took home the first place ribbon for the best six head. Both the get and junior get classes were won by progeny of Pine Drive Big Sky, the 7-4-80 son of LEMAR Eileenmere Lad 549 that ended an impressive show career with a win at last year's Houston event.
