"Jamie" made winning look easy, but she had equal competitors right behind her vying for the coveted title. Heifers like E&W Dolly, Silveiras Fallon, Premier Maria 131E, Seldom Seen Queen Mother S18, SAF Rachel and Nelson Golden Girl all gave her a run for her money. But she outshined them all in an attractive field of 103 females.

WNAF

April 28-30, 1985

Marion and E.G. ("Muzzy and Buzzy") Foote were the center of attention for the Ladies Day Extravaganza.

The West did it again! "Rolling out the red carpet" is an understatement in reference to the lengths the Western States Angus Assn. went to at this year's Western National Angus Futurity in Reno. It was a charged atmosphere and excitement rode high on "seeing the calves" again since Denver.

Exhibitors, spectators and guests were spoiled by the luxurious John Ascuga's Nugget hotel and casino. John Ascuga more than showed his appreciation of Angus breeders staying at his establishment as he presented the Western States Angus Assn. with a $9,000 check on the final day of the show.

Marion "Muzzy" Foote and her crew of ladies put unnumbered hours and much labor into the fabulous arena decor that adds so much to this gala event.

The ladies day extravaganza was planned in all secrecy and when the surprise was disclosed, the focus was pinpointed on Muzzy Foote in appreciation of her years of "carting" around WSAA paraphernalia and being a true and "death do us part" promoter of that organization.

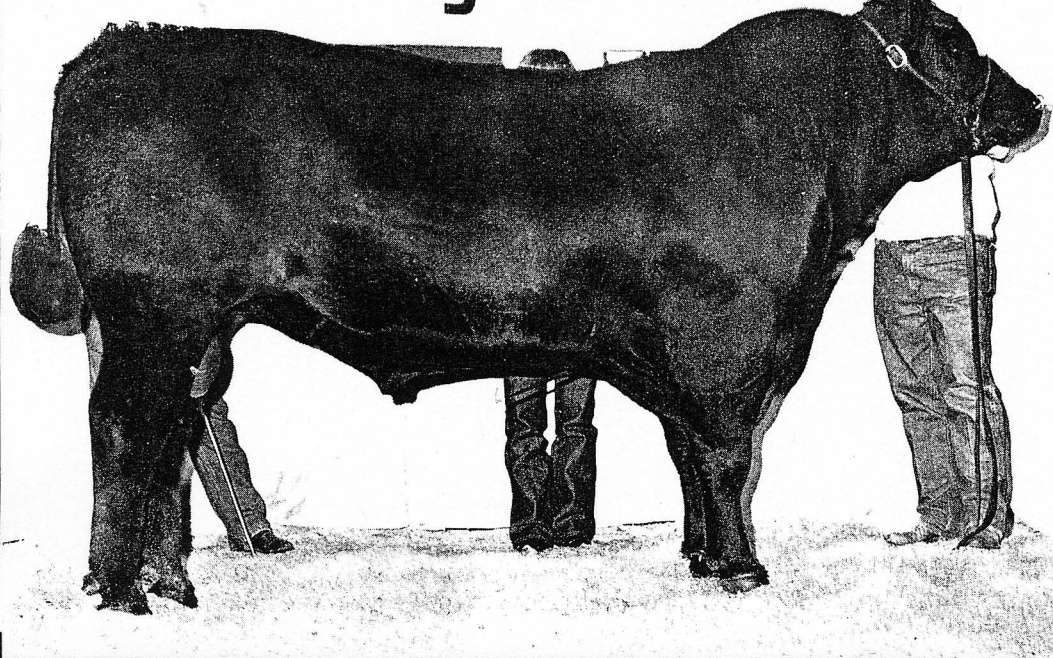

The show boasted of 103 females and 77 bulls—one of the largest lineups ever—and the greats were there. Road veterans such as "Chairman," "Jamie" and Brost Power Drive were in the spotlight, joined by a young "Chairman" daughter unveiled in her splendor, E&W Dolly. They all took purple in a very, very tough two-day show.

The ringside crowd received a command performance, and were certainly attentive to the workings of judge Jimmy Linthicum and his daughter Cheryl from Welch, Okla. Jimmy looked hard at individuals free of structural problems, stressed

A wedding scene was part of the program and the groom got really red in the face.

GRAND CHAMPION BULL
Greenbrae Chairman

Exhibited by: Chairman's Board of Directors

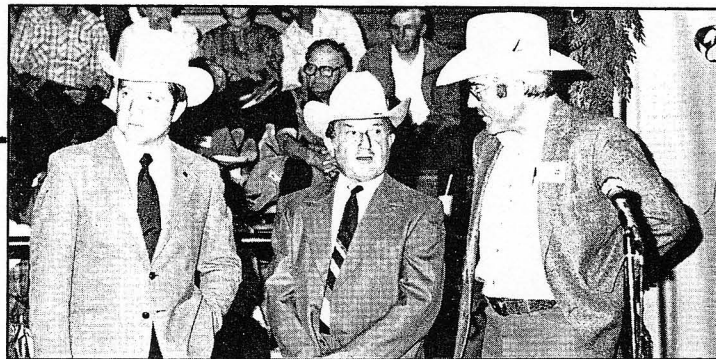

Greenbrae Chairman and Bill Wilson teamed up again from the Premier Angus Inc. outfit at Cloverdale, Ind., to make their familiar walk into the winner's circle for the grand championship. "Chairman" is a 5-10-82 Fairfield Hi Guy son and has a long running tally of show wins, including the 1985 National reserve champion bull and the Houston grand championship. "Chairman" had to work his way around Dixie Royal and last year's Futurity winner SVF Pistolero in class, then meet head on with the likes of Crackerjack Brutus 512 to win the senior division and eventually grand champion.

Reno, Nevada

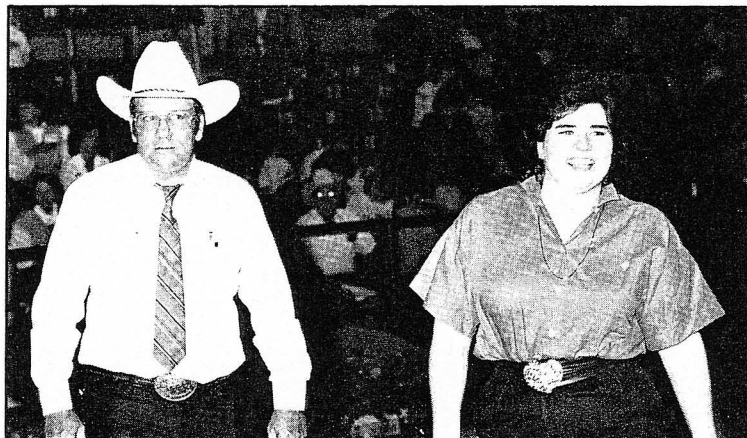

complete uniformity in smoothness and extension of muscle, as well as eye appeal coupled with growth and development. He kept this in mind as he selected his four champions the last afternoon of the show.

Princess Jamie 1R had reason to brag the most as she won the WNAF champion heifer title for the second year in a row and claimed the silver punch bowl set for owner Jamie Worthington, Princeville, Ill. The 4-14-83 daughter of RCT Machinist looked more impressive than ever, aided by the superb fit job by the Worthington brothers—Brad, Doug and Jeff—and shown by sister Carrie (Worthington) Harl.

E&W Dolly made an exciting debut. This 6-4-84 Greenbrae Chairman daughter took the ribbon handily in the 71-head junior show for owner Stacia Ellis, Greentown, Ind. Dolly moved on up in the ranks of the open show, capturing the late junior calf champion ribbon and then the silver platter for the reserve grand champion female title.

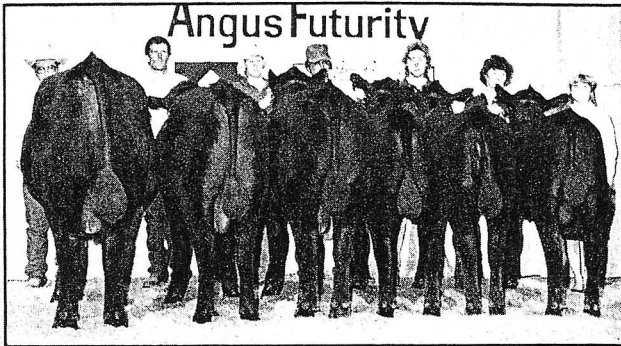

Dick Spader (left), American Angus Assn. executive vice president, and John Cox (right), visit with John Ascuga, owner of John Ascuga's Nugget hotel and casino, after his presentation of a $9,000 check to the WSAA. Spader also presented a check for $5,000 to Cox earlier in support of the WNAF.

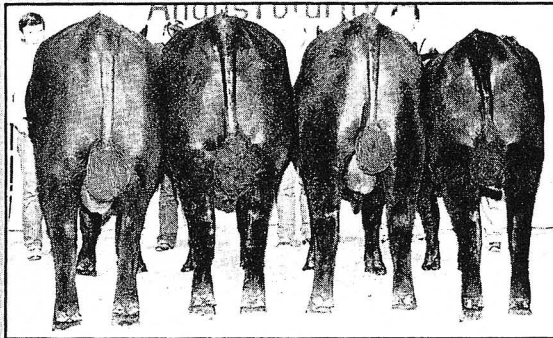

Jimmy Linthicum (left), and his daughter Cheryl of Welch, Okla., served as the judges for the WNAF. 180 head kept them busy for the two-day show and the pair pleased most with the superb and thorough job of judging.

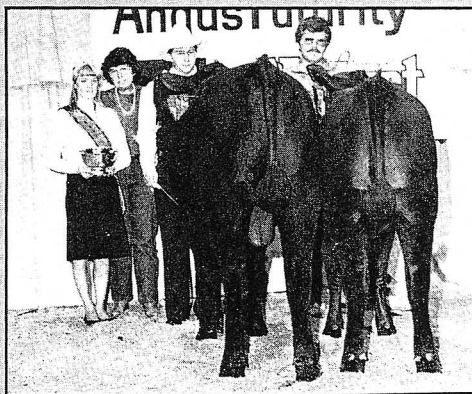

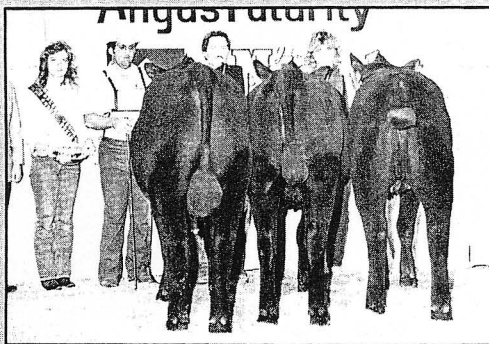

Best six head went to Huckfeldt-Krebs.

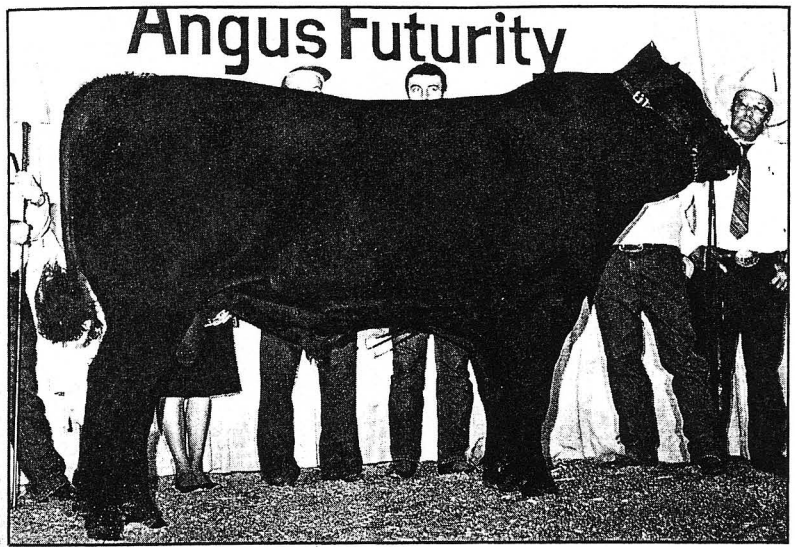

Progeny of Pine Drive Big Sky won first place get-of-sire for Premier Angus Inc., Four Sum Cattle Co., Windy Acres Angus, Weaver Angus Farm, Erdmann Angus, Nick Brost, Pine Tar Associates, Jerry Williams and Silbernagel Angus.

Greenbrae Chairman progeny claimed the junior get-of-sire banner for Premier Angus Inc., Riverside Farms, Silveira Bros., Cooper Mountain Farms and Stacia Ellis.

Quirk Land & Cattle Co. exhibited the champion produce of dam on the progeny of QLC A45 Jestress A226P.

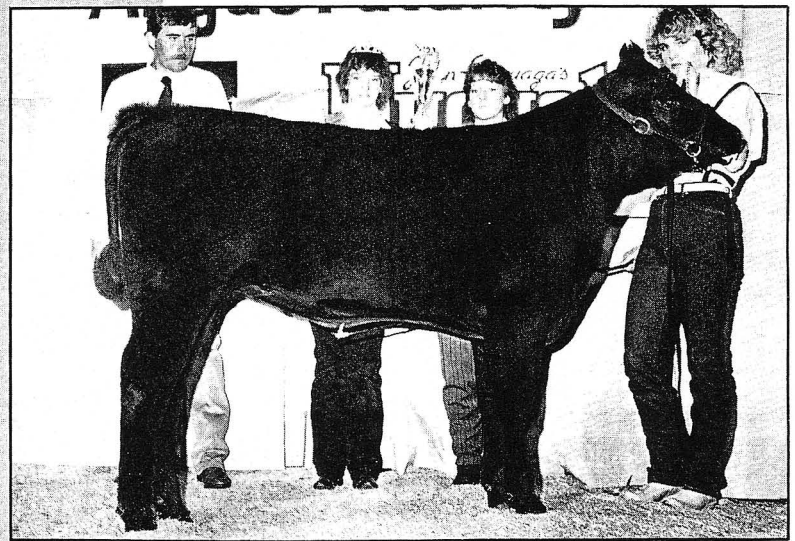

RESERVE GRAND CHAMPION BULL Brost Power Drive

Exhibited by: Premier Angus and Nick Brost

The bull representation was awesome! Many that had appeared at Denver were back on the road again. Even though only three and one-half months separated the National Western and Reno, changes in the calves were notable.

Greenbrae Chairman made a repeat performance of earlier show season wins by chalking up another senior and grand championship for Chairman's Board of Directors.

Another member of the Premier Angus show team was junior champion Brost Power Drive. Linticum indicated him as the second favorite after this January 1983 Pine Drive Big Sky son headed off some tough competition including 4S Ponderosa and Bear Creek Top Ten 3106.

"I tell you, it can't get any better than this," declares the Ladies Day emcee Ralph Clark (left) to the Association's Dick Spader.

"Honey, put that red dress on." The Association's Steve Burns found a nightie and the surprised owner was Muzzy Foote.

The annual Ladies Day Extravaganza paid special tribute this year to Marion "Muzzy" Foote. Muzzy has dedicated many years of time and salesmanship to the WSAA. Not too many people have gotten away from Muzzy's table without a WSAA Angus sweater, jacket or other paraphernalia.

The Ladies Day act brought back the yesteryears of Muzzy's life, beginning with her marriage to E.G. "Buzzy" Foote, and later the birth and marriage of their son E.G. Jr. The actors and actresses, we must add, have had very limited parts on Broadway, but these "amateurs" did put on quite a comedy act—and "It was almost like a song."

It's your last chance E.G., either "Slip out the back, Buck or plan a new plan, Stan" because the lady clothed in white and holding the weeds (our anonymous Patsy Foote) will be all yours with a single "I do." It's really okay Larry Cotton, he'll take good care of her—after all E.G. is a doctor.

"Girls just want to have fun." Muzzy used to get together with the girls from the Northwest to share "a little" gossip.

"We'll be comin' around the mountain . . ." Muzzy and Buzzy's honeymoon night was relived by this somewhat attractive couple. (Muzzy got caught up in the sheets on the traditional chase around the bed.)

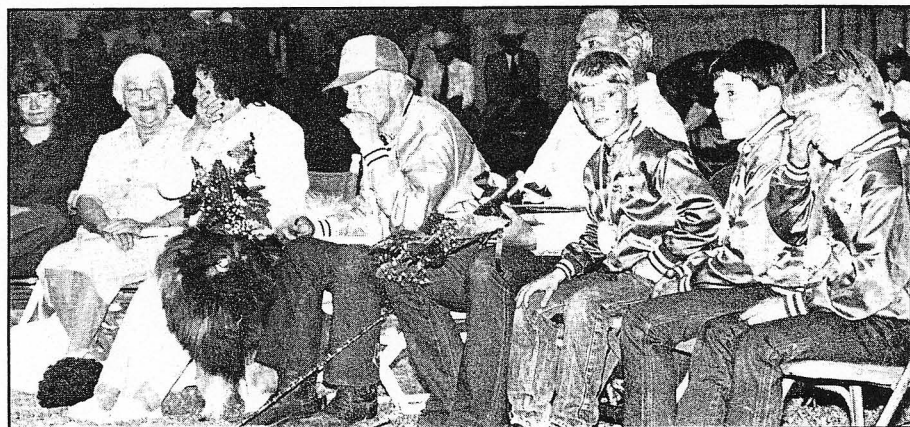

"When I die, just let me go to Texas." The preacher (who also doubles as an auctioneer from Nebraska) tries to revive a fainted groom with a little Budweiser. The groom did make it up in time to begin the honeymoon.

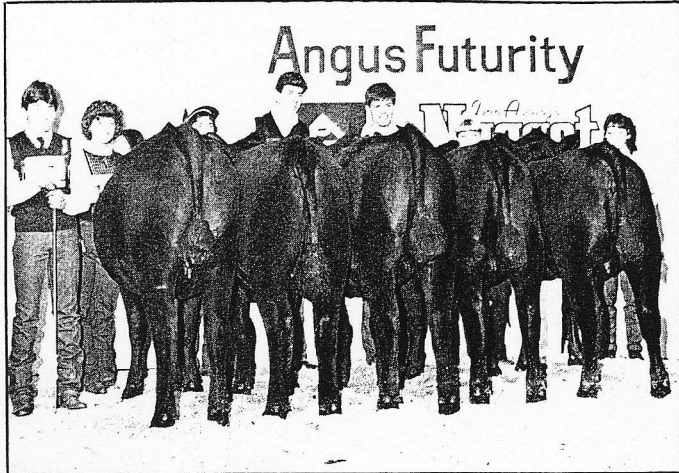

"Oh Lord, it's hard to be humble." In the height of her show days, Muzzy (Mary Murkowski) tried a lot to get a judge's attention—even wearing a blonde wig, tight pink pants and carrying a razzle-dazzle showstick.

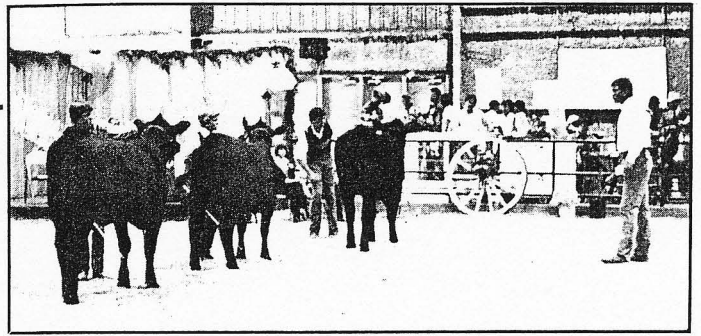

The Foote family today. At far left is Patsy; center is Muzzy and Buzzy (with cap); E.G. Jr.; and Patsy and E.G.'s boys Tad, Garvin and Shawn (or Shawn, Garvin and Tad—twins are hard to tell apart). Along with Muzzy selling her promotion material, the whole Foote family stays involved in Western states activities.

Angus Show

Members of the Central California Junior Angus Assn. exhibited this first place group of five.

The Reno Futurity arena is always very attractively decorated and the competitive lineups of calves enhanced the beauty further.

Keeping on top of activities at Reno was Brenda Coleman (the Oregon Angus queen) and Christy Rusher, Salem, Ore.

Der Hagen, Big Timber, Mont., won the reserve champion bred-and-owned title with Big Timber 410, a February 1984 Fairfield Hi Guy son.

The registered steer show was new this year and was represented by only two entries. Luke Stevens showed the champion steer and Laurence Keifer Jr., Quincy, Calif., exhibited the reserve champion steer.

Members of the Central California Junior Angus Assn. put together the first place group of five Angus. The Oregon Junior Assn. showed the second place group and Northern California Junior Assn., third. The Premier Breeder Award for the second year went to Silveira Bros., Mendota, Calif.

Letunich & Sons, Payette, Idaho, donated Letunich Jurine 705 to the Western States Angus Auxiliary. She brought in $2,450 to boost the ladies' funds from an auction held during the Ladies Day Extravaganza. Mike Rusher and Christiena Sattler of Salem, Ore., did the buying. Granada Genetics Inc. donated a free flush of the heifer and Harding and Harding American Livestock Insurance insured her for 30 days from the date of her sale.

Bill J. Conley, Clarksdale, Mo., lined up the 71 entries in the junior show and contributed extra time and advice to the showmanship classes, working especially with the junior class of young Angus showmen.

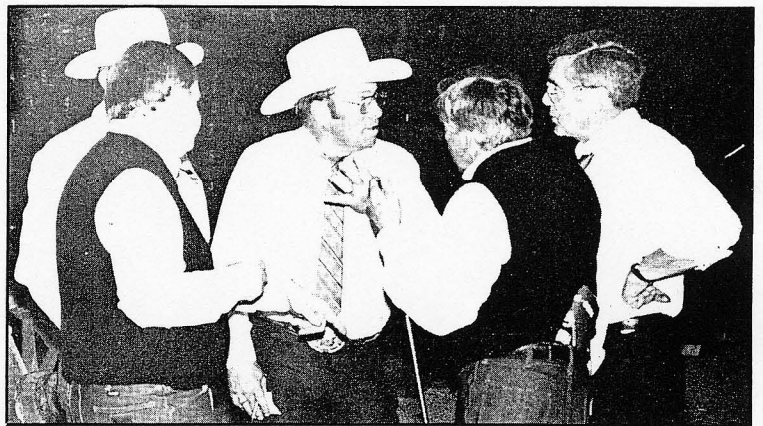

There were a lot of bright, smiling faces in Reno, including these ladies for the Northwest. They are Cathy Wiser (front) and back row, from left: Julie Coonrad, Geri Grieb and Julie Wiser.

Laura, father Ed, and Wayne Lugo of El Centro, Calif., spent some time intently studying some of the total 39 classes of open class show entries.

These ladies kept reserved seats on the sidelines all during the three day show. At this table, Diane Beck, Platte City, Mo., Norma Conley, Groton, Mass., and Joyce Roche, Galt, Calif., had a birdseye view.

"Jimmy, do you think you really will get your point across to this bunch?" From left: Jerry Fitzgerald, Harrison, Neb.; Jimmy Linthicum, Welch, Okla.; Larry Cotton, Howell, Mich. and Murray Fretz, WSAA secretary-manager take part in some post-show discussion.

That wasn't the same look you gave the Nugget show girls, Dave McMahon and Bill Conley!

You never know what Bill Rishel of North Platte, Neb., may be dishing out, but Randy Rasby (left), Sutherland, Neb., and Kent Jorgensen (center), Kearney, Neb. were certainly gullible candidates.

Californians were in full force at the Futurity. They included Sherry and James Danekas (left), of Citrus Heights and Abby and Mark Nelson of Wilton.
