

HERITAGE HERDS

Angus. It's more than cattle and a business. It's a family, a community, a group, that's always honoring what's come before, while advancing for the future.

This section is full of people who have melded tradition and progress, keeping alive the best parts of the past, while creating a vision for what's ahead. The common thread? They have five decades — or more — of Angus experience under their belts. They're our historic Angus herds.
