

HISTORIC Angus Herds

The foundation of the Angus breed is its Association's members. The Historic Angus Herd Award is available to currently active members of the American Angus Association who own a herd that has been in the continuous production of registered Angus cattle for 50 years or more by the same person or members of the immediate family. Since 1988 the American Angus Association has recognized with this special award more than 100 herds for their longevity and contributions to the Angus breed.

Owners of herds that qualify receive a certificate signed by the president of the Association commemorating the achievement of Historic Herd status. The herd is recognized in the "Association Highlights" column of the Angus Journal, and a news release is sent to media in the state and local area where the herd is located.

While achieving the status of Historic Angus Herd isn't easy, applying for the honor is. If your herd qualifies, contact the Association to request an application, then complete and return it to the Association. The application will be reviewed and checked for accuracy against the Association's official records.

Following is a list of herds that have achieved this recognition as of April 30, 1999. They are presented alphabetically. Listings include the year of recognition.
