

Tuesday,

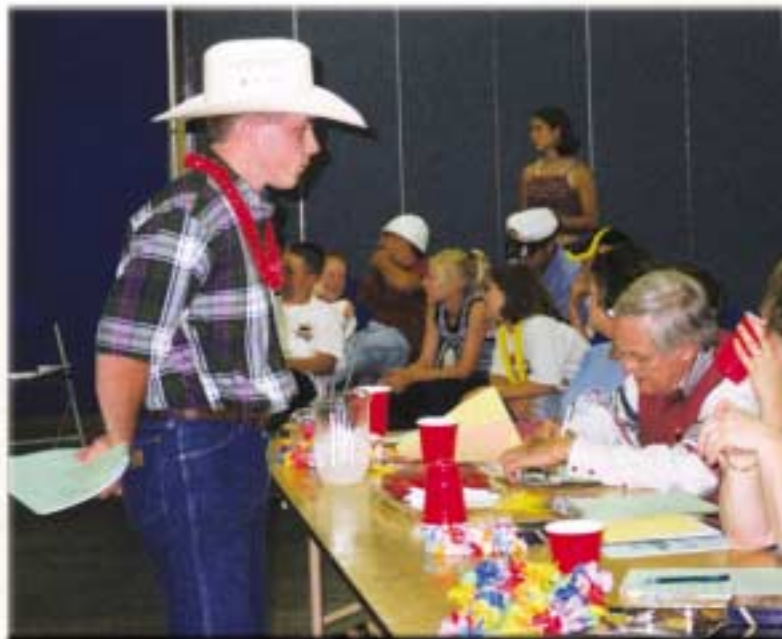

Under the Western Sky

► Early Tuesday morning, 14 teams of Angus enthusiasts converge on Thorncreek Golf Course for the first-ever Angus Foundation golf tournament. For complete coverage of the tournament, see page 230. lz

► Sixty-five juniors attend a briefing before they begin their duties as delegates to the National Junior Angus Association (NJAA) Annual Meeting. As state representatives, they use opportunities throughout the week to meet with candidates vying for positions on the NJAA Board of Directors. cb

► The Auxiliary-sponsored All-American Certified Angus Beef® Cook-Off is a popular attraction at every National Junior Angus Show (NJAS). This year 38 junior and adult teams competed for prizes in fresh-meat and quick-and-easy divisions. For complete coverage of the Cook-Off, see page 236. lz

July 10

► At opening ceremonies, country singer Pete Martinez performs the national anthem and entertains the crowd with songs from his latest album. lz

► An integral part of opening ceremonies is the Parade of States. Junior members from 35 states took part in the 2001 NJAS. lz

► During the Queens' Brunch, Angus breeder Pamela Plenys (right), Miss California America 1992, talked about the importance of a healthy self-image. Event co-chair Mercedes Danekas, Wilton, Calif., helped emcee the "Do's and Don'ts Queens' Attire Fashion Show." ad

► Following opening ceremonies, the evening culminates with banana splits provided by the Nebraska Angus and Nebraska Junior Angus associations. lz

CONTINUED ON PAGE 182