

NJAS Silent Auction Supports Angus Youth

Generosity of item donors, buyers raises $5,994 for the Angus Foundation.

In the Angus business, everyone loves a good auction. The Angus Foundation Silent Auction, which was conducted during the 2001 National Junior Angus Show (NJAS) in Denver, Colo., was no exception.

Thanks to the generosity of state junior Angus associations and other breeders and individuals, this year's silent auction raised $5,994 for the Angus Foundation, which supports Angus youth, education and research. Bidding was competitive, and in the end everyone was a winner — especially Angus youth.

"Every year we're overwhelmed with the quantity and quality of items that are donated to this event," says Susan Rhode, director of communications and public relations for the American Angus Association and coordinator of the event. "Our thanks to the many generous donors and buyers who are willing to support the Angus Foundation and its programs, which impact the future of the breed."

The Michigan Junior Angus Association donated the high-selling item, a framed print titled "In the Snow," which featured Angus cattle in a winter scene. Roger Worthington, Princeville, Ill., purchased the item for $425. The Michigan Junior Angus Association will receive $50 from the Angus Foundation for their donation of the high-selling item.

The second-high-selling item was a metal porch swing donated by the Texas Junior Angus Association. The winning bid of $385 was placed by Purdum Angus Farm, Kent, Iowa.

Special thanks to the donors and buyers listed here.
