

Tuesday

► A misty morning gave way to a comfortable day for golf at the 2002 Angus Foundation Golf Tournament during the National Junior Angus Show in Milwaukee, Wis. Eleven teams played 19 holes of golf to support the National Junior Angus Association.

► Missouri junior division Cook-Off team members answer questions from the judges following their "Survivor" skit. Thirty-eight teams participated in the 19th annual Auxiliary-sponsored All-American Certified Angus Beef® Cook-Off.

► A junior member pulls her carcass steer into a squeeze chute to be weighed. Forty-one steers were entered in the carcass contest. The average steer weight was 1,185 pounds with a 62.14 dressing percentage.

► Spreading Angus news, Tom Patterson (left), 2001-2002 NJAA Board chairman, visits with Gus Gnorski, a reporter for the Fox television affiliate in Milwaukee, Wis. The live interview appeared on Channel 6's morning show.

► Attendees shared sprinkles and other banana split toppings after opening ceremonies. The Nebraska Junior Angus Association sponsored the ice cream social.

► The barns are headquarters for many state associations during the NJAS. Kansas's youth won the Sweepstakes Award for the sixth consecutive year.

CONTINUED ON PAGE 144

► James Fisher, American Angus Association director of activities and junior activities, explains the rules and regulations of the Wisconsin State Fairgrounds to state advisors.

ANGUS

UNDER THE BIG TOP

Opening

► Wisconsin junior Angus member Amanda Downing Gehr, Waukesha, sings the national anthem at the opening ceremonies of the 2002 National Junior Angus Show.

► John Crouch, American Angus Association executive vice president, and James Fisher, director of activities and junior activities, ride into the coliseum in a horse-drawn carriage.

► Right: Making a grand entrance, Leroy Baldwin, president of the American Angus Association, and his grandson Colt enter the coliseum on the back of a camel.

► Old Glory B and Star Stud, a.k.a. Becky and Bob Tiedeman, invite show exhibitors to attend the ice cream social following opening ceremonies. The Nebraska Junior Angus Association sponsored the social.

Ceremonies

► Brittnia Carlson, Cherokee, introduces fellow members of the Iowa Junior Angus Association. State representatives introduced their delegations and explained a little about their associations.

► Members of the Louisiana Junior Angus Association dressed festively in Mardi Gras costumes for the parade of states.

► A wagon holding a Bengal tiger makes its way around the coliseum. NJAS exhibitors were treated to a circus parade during the opening ceremonies.

► Right: Members of the 2001-2002 NJAA Board of Directors parade around the showing. Junior Board members made their presence known throughout the week by sporting their green jackets.

CONTINUED ON PAGE 146