

NEWSMAKERS

Compiled by Lindsay King, assistant editor

Within this “Newsmakers” column we are pleased to share important news and accomplishments of our members, including state association activities, birth and marriage announcements, and news of Angus members’ passing.

In passing

Maj. Gen. John H. Jacobsmeyer Jr., USAF, Ret. Gen. Jacobsmeyer, 88, Portsmouth, N.H., passed away May 24.

Known to family as “Jack” and to friends as “Jake,” he was born in 1930 in Portsmouth, N.H., to John H. and Priscilla (Hooper) Jacobsmeyer Sr. He and his brother, Bill, grew up there during the Great Depression and World War II with the hard-working, small-community values of that period. He graduated from the University of New Hampshire in 1952 with a bachelor’s degree in electrical engineering. As a distinguished military graduate of the AFROTC program, he entered active duty with an assignment to missile and flight testing.

After Jack’s retirement from the Air Force in 1981, he returned to New Hampshire, settling in Northwood to operate Spring Run Farm, where he raised black Angus cattle, provided some defense consulting services and supported town affairs.

Although his professions were in engineering and agriculture, he also had a knack for artistic design that became visible in a number of his home projects.

Jack is survived by his wife of 65 years, Patricia; brother William Edward (Anna Mae) Jacobsmeyer; children Joanne Elizabeth (Matthew) Sprott, Jay Michael (Joyce) Jacobsmeyer, Susan Eileen (Paul) Kowalski, John Henry III (Katrina) Jacobsmeyer; eight grandchildren; and one great-grandchild.

Marjorie Maude (Wright) Howell,

95, of Daleville, Ind., passed away July 9.

She was born Oct. 4, 1922, on the family farm owned by her parents, Claude E. and Mary Patterson Wright, near Cowan, Ind.

Marjorie was raised during the Great Depression and learned at an early age the value of hard work at her family’s dairy farm. She never knew an idle moment and was the perfect example to her family of industry and diligence.

She was the salutatorian of Cowan High School Class of 1940 and studied home economics at Ball State Teachers College where she graduated in 1944. She taught at Mt. Summit High School for two years before she married Warren D. Howell in 1946.

Marjorie was a full partner to her husband as they worked together

Continued on page 306

Ohio Angus Association Preview Show, June 17, Lima

Maplecrest Farms, Hillsboro, Ohio, was named premier breeder. Pictured are (from left) Matt Kleski, judge; Lauren Grimes; Lindsey Hall; Adam Hall; and John Grimes.

Sarah Millikan, Napoleon, Ohio, won premier exhibitor.

Gahler Farms and Brayden Hayes, both of Graytown, Ohio, won the herdsman award. Pictured from left are Jayson Hayes; Griffin, Allen and Carrie Gahler; and Brayden Hayes.

building their family farm, producing grain and raising hogs and a herd of Angus cattle.

Marjorie and Warren were the parents of three children. After her youngest child was in school, Marjorie taught home economics, health and physical education at Daleville High School for nearly twenty-five years.

Both Warren and Marjorie encouraged and were delighted in the success of the young people who came under their influence at school, on the farm or in 4-H activities. She was a gifted and prolific seamstress and hand-craft artist throughout her life. Her industriousness and love for flowers led her to maintain classic and expansive rose and vegetable gardens until prevented by advancing age.

Marjorie was a life member of the Indiana Angus Auxiliary and the American Angus Association. She was also a 4-H leader and a sought-after foods and clothing judge at county fairs.

Marjorie is survived by her children

David W. (Mary) Howell, Philip A. (Judy) Howell, and Anne E. (Don) Sullivan; grandchildren Adam (Keri) Howell, Amanda Howell, Aaron (Katherine) Howell, Audrey Howell (Mike) Behrendt, Emily Howell (David) Reynolds, Andy Howell, Brian Howell, Sarah (Michael) Ainsa, and Katherine (David) Guenthenspberger; 17 great-grandchildren; several nieces and nephews; and sister-in-law, Joann Wright. [A]

All-American Angus Breeders' Futurity Roll of Victory Show, June 17, Louisville, Ky.

Jeff Ward, Buck Valley, Pa., was honored as master breeder. Pictured are (from left) Kallie Knott, Miss American Angus; Ernie Bingman; Leonard Newman, accepting for Jeff; and Paul Hill.

Double Diamond Angus, Chrisman, Ill., was honored as herdsman of the year. Pictured are (from left) Paul Hill; Ernie Bingman; Scott Anderson; Kyle Anderson, holding Beckham Anderson; Chase Anderson; and Kallie Knott, Miss American Angus.

Chris Lynn, Robinson, Ill., was honored as manager of the year. Pictured are (from left) Kallie Knott, Miss American Angus; Danny Lynn; Anne Patton Schubert; Chris Lynn, Ernie Bingman; and Paul Hill.

Andrew Hodges was honored as premier breeder while Doug Satree won premier exhibitor, both from Montague, Texas. Pictured are (from left) Chad Hudgins; Kallie Knott, Miss American Angus; Tom Burke; Doug Satree; Katy Satree; Linda and Ernie Bingman; Chris Hart; and Travis Drumm.

Floyd Dievert, Danville, Ky., was honored as pioneer breeder posthumously. Pictured are (from left) Bill Conley, judge; Logan Dievert; Margie Dievert; Paul Hill; Tim, Shirley and Clara Dievert; Niesje Dievert Langston; Clara Winderl; Brooke Dievert Winderl; Hunter Dievert; Paul Winderl; Kallie Knott, Miss American Angus; and Kalli Flanders, Miss Kentucky Angus.

Ernie and Linda Bingman, Carmi, Ill., were honored with the show dedication award. Pictured are (from left) Kallie Knott, Miss American Angus; Ernie and Linda Bingman; and Paul Hill.

Photos by Mark Sims, American Angus Association

Pennsylvania Angus Breeders' Show, June 22, Huntingdon

Taking top honors in the men's cattle judging are (from left) Jim Kuhn, Conneautville, Pa., first; Craig Reasy, New Enterprise, Pa., second; Robert Taylor, Middletown, Del., third; and Wendall Landis, Manheim, Pa., fourth. Not pictured is Michael Mendoza, Fredonia, fifth.

Taking top honors in the women's cattle judging are (from left) Elizabeth Voight, accepting on behalf of Cathy Rohrbaugh, Seven Valleys, first; Cassandra Hake, Etters, second; Kim Brooks, Mount Joy, third; Hope Jacobs, Airville, fourth; and Kelly Heineman, New Freedom, fifth. Cathy also won high individual overall divisions.

Named premier breeder was Beaver Creek Angus, Thomasville, Pa. Pictured are (from left) Jared and Hannah Miller; and Kolton, Kinleigh, Kaitlyn and Kyle Grim.

Named premier exhibitor was Just-Enuff Angus, Bethlehem, Pa. Pictured are (from left) Jerry Brozman; Linda Hower; Olivia Brozman; Molly Mertz; Jamie Brozman; Ethan Brozman; Morgan Wasser; Robert Taylor II; Adam Koch; Nikolas Wasser; and Alex Norz.

Haley Sweitzer, Wellsville, Pa., (right) won the Golden Pitchfork Award. Presented by Dale Rains (left).

Nancy Livingston, Dover, Pa., (left) won the Conrad Grove Memorial Award. Presented by Nancy and Fritz Frey.

Please join us for our first production sale!

April 13, 2019

with our friends at Top Line Farm and Kramer Angus

Your trusted source for herd-building Angus genetics!

KIESEWETTER

Dan Kieseewetter
(309) 635-2001

Angus

Steve Kieseewetter
(309) 224-2092

Farmington, IL
www.kieseewetterangus.com