The Angus Foundation teed off the Annual Angus Foundation Golf Tournament at the Indianhead Golf Club in Grand Island, Neb., Tuesday, July 13 in conjunction with the 2021 National Junior Angus Show (NJAS).

This year's tournament was the largest to date with 24 teams and raised more than $31,000 to help continue the Angus Foundation's mission of education, youth and research. With the cancellation of the 2020 tournament, this year marked the 20th golf tournament for the Angus Foundation.

"The Angus Foundation Golf Tournament is a great opportunity to bring together adults and juniors to support the efforts of the Angus Foundation," says Thomas Marten, Angus Foundation executive director. "We were so excited to be able to host the annual event again this year."

This year, the tournament was sponsored by ABS Global Inc., a cattle genetics and technology company. The luncheon and event hole flags were sponsored by Neogen. The Clubhouse sponsors were Connealy Angus, Whitman, Neb.; and Heritage Farm, Shelbyville, Ky. The beverage cart sponsor was Brinkley Angus Ranch, Milan, Mo.
