NATIONAL JUNIOR ANGUS SHOW

Flashing Lights

by Megan Silveira, assistant editor

With a bright flare, flash after flash goes off, blinding viewers momentarily. Although these aren't the lights of the carnival — they're the flash of a camera.

For years, photography has been used to capture moments, memories and emotions that can last a lifetime.

Members of the National Junior Angus Association (NJAA) brought the flashing lights of the carnival home as they participated in the annual Angus Journal/NJAA photography contest.
