

NJAS 2022

BROUGHT TO YOU COURTESY OF THE RED, WHITE AND BLUE

NJAS attendees celebrate the 4th of July, Angus-style

Compiled by Julie Mais, Megan Silveira and Faye Smith

Dylan Bieber –
Waukon, Iowa
What do you like about spending the 4th of July with your Angus family? “All the great memories and fun times.”

Scott Lasack, Oxford Junction, Iowa; Terry Harder, Holy Cross, Iowa; Chad Gotto, Dyersville, Iowa

Is a hot dog a sandwich?

“That’s a very tricky question. A hot dog a sandwich? I guess so, if you eat it on a bun.” — Gotto.

“Of course, it’s a sandwich. It’s on bread.” — Harder

“I say no because it’s on a bun. I don’t eat sandwiches on a bun.” — Lasack

Samantha Van Vorhis –
Bowling Green, Ohio

What are you most excited for at your first National Junior Angus Show?

“I think understanding how they operate compared to different breeds. It’s the largest junior national I’ve ever been to, so I’m excited to meet all the people from different states because there is so many people.”

A’Lee Griffin and Austyn Gorman –
Olton, Texas

What are you looking forward to this week during Junior Nationals?

“Hanging out with all of my friends.” — Griffin

“The state tailgate, so I can eat.” — Gorman

Ethan Rigney – Elwood, Ind.

What’s your favorite 4th of July tradition?

“Fireworks, because they’re loud, and so am I.”

Mandy Hacker – Lexington, Ill.

What are you looking forward to this week during Junior Nationals?

“Showing and the competition. It’s fun and it gives me something to do.”
