Once again, the American Angus Breeders' Futurity proved to be a spectacular event for Angus enthusiasts from across the nation.

Many strong contenders found their way to Kentucky's Fair and Exposition Center to compete for their share of the glory and glitter. The 37th version of this annual affair, witnessed by a large and attentive crowd, was dedicated to Rachel Breck of Sharon, Conn. The enthusiasm and energy of the event was indeed a suitable tribute to the founder of the legendary Hedgroves herd and a stalwart of the Angus breed.

Judge Herman Purdy of Huntingdon Farm, Alexandria, Pa., lined up the 150 entries and when the judging was complete slapped Cobble Pond New Yorker supreme champion. This popular young sire exhibited by Cobble Pond Farm, Sharon, Conn., and Gallagher's Angus Farm, Ghent, N.Y., is a February 1983 son of Pine Drive Big Sky out of Gunston Seniorita. The early junior champion measured an even 60 inches at the hip and tipped the scales at 1,630 lb. General approval of his reign was evidenced by a plethora of semen sales during the event.

The Futurity's leading lady was intermediate champion R&J Sybil 2003, a July 1983 R&J Austin 13 daughter, exhibited by R&J Ranch, Briggs, Texas, and Backgate Angus, Dallas.

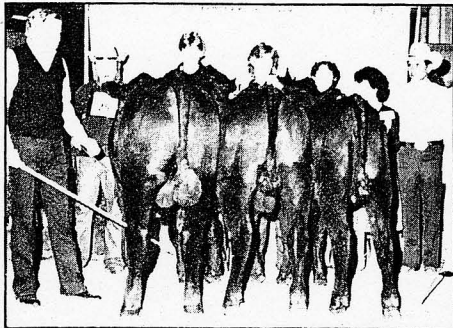

Reserve grand champions Greenbrae Chairman and Windac Tiara F460 are no newcomers to the tanbark and winner's circles—each has been led to purple in several major shows. Chairmans Board of Directors exhibited the senior champion bull, while Windy Acres Angus, Harrison, Neb.; B&L Ranch, Shawnee, Okla.; and Bert Skou, Buenos Aires, Argentina, paraded "Tiara" to reserve intermediate and reserve grand champion spots in the following day's female show.

Cow-calf entries were small in number but big attention-getters. Quality was high and competition tough. When judge Purdy finished his selections, Kruegers Scaara of Sayre and ROR Scarlett 33R walked away winners.

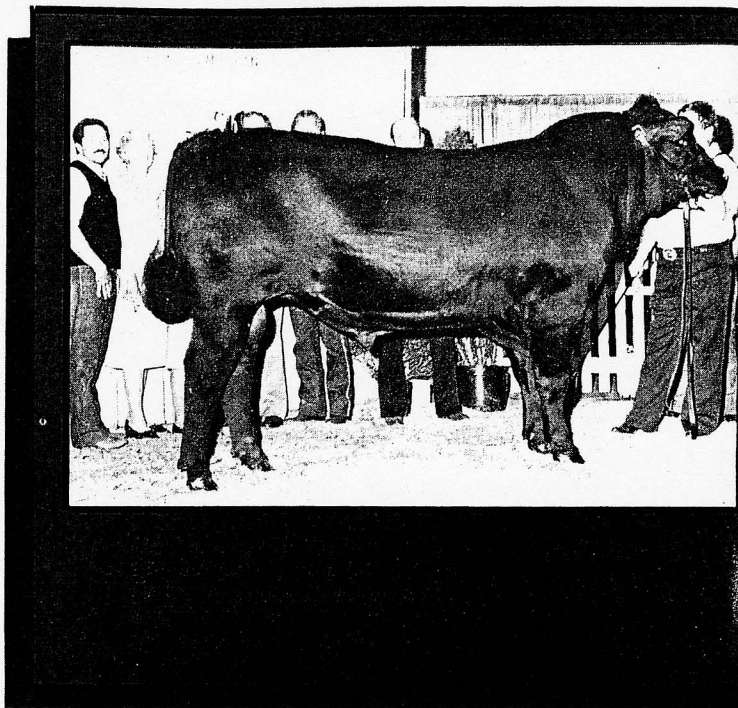

Pine Drive Big Sky progeny lined up to win get-of-sire title for Premier Angus, Cloverdale, Ind.; Premier Beef, Howell, Mich.; Rattle & Snap Farms, Columbia, Tenn.; Cobble Pond; Gallagher's Angus Farm; Pine Tar Associates; Windy Acres; and Weaver Angus Farm, Peoria, Ill. That foursome of calves helped earn their sire the show's premier sire award.

Other group titles included several exhibitors: Windy Acres, Bert Skou, B&L Ranch and Belle Point Ranch, Lavaca, Ark., captured junior get-of-sire honors; Premier Beef and Doran Bollman Family, Pulaski, Iowa, won the Premier Independence KN progeny topped the first-ever calf get-of-sire class for Premier Beef and Doran Bollman Family.

RE&J Ranch exhibited the best six head to capture the Premier Breeder banner.

Pine Drive Big Sky progeny won the get-of-sire division.

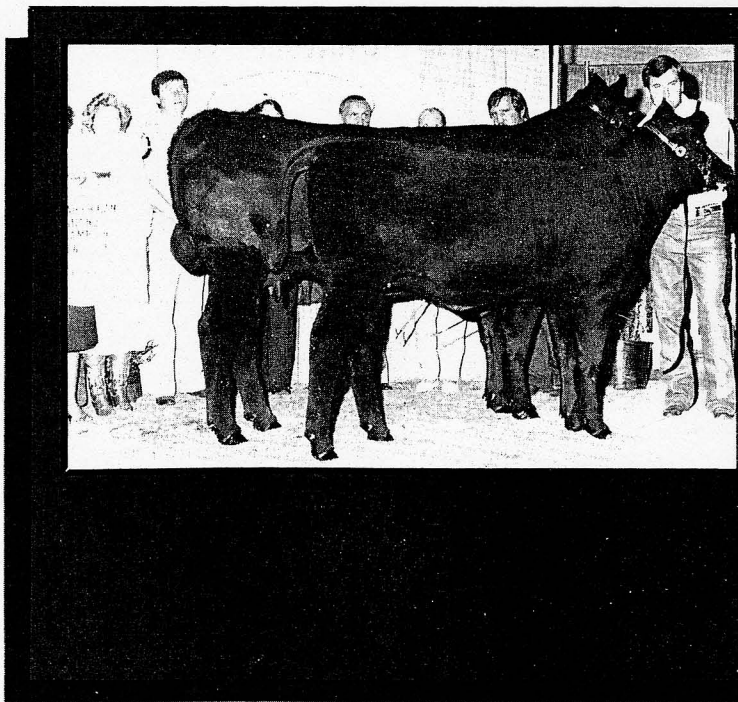

first-ever calf get-of-sire division; and Windy Acres claimed produce of dam and best pair awards. RE&J Ranch exhibited best six head and was named premier breeder of the show.

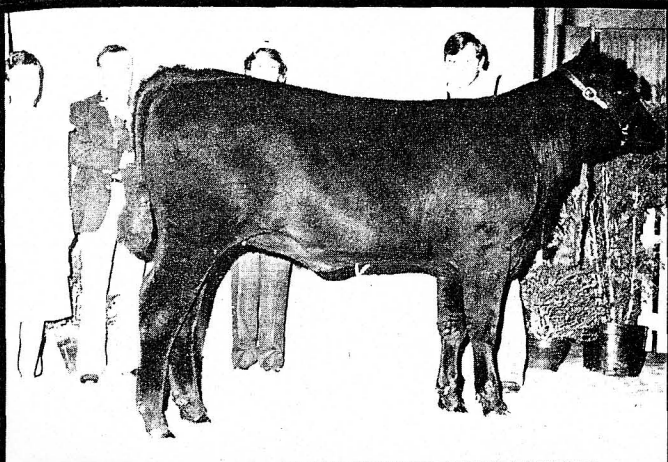

Events of the two-day affair included the record-setting embryo auction, sale of the Auxiliary scholarship heifer, entertainment by country music star Dianne Sherrill, and special appearance by jazz musician Benny Goodman, brother-in-law of specially honored Rachel Breck.

Embryo Auction Realizes $148,500

Edition five of the Futurity's "National Embryo Auction" was a huge success tallying $148,500 and averaging an impressive $16,500 on the nine featured matings.

An embryo out of Candolier Progress 7429 and sired by High Voltage, consigned by Leatherstocking Farm, Easton, N.Y., created tremendous excitement as Backgate Angus Inc., Dallas, paid top price of $30,000. Riverside Farms, Hamilton, Texas, placed the next highest bid of $28,500 on an embryo out of the show's reserve grand champion female Windac Tiara F460 and sired by supreme champion Cobble Pond New Yorker, consigned by B&L Ranch, Shawnee, Okla. Cobble Pond Farm, Sharon, Conn., and Twin Valley Farms, Prattville, Ala., then valued a consignment by Windy Acres Angus, Harrison, Neb., and Bert Skou, Buenos Aires, Argentina, at $21,000. Their bid went on a mating of triple crown winner Windac Class 1752 ("Windy") and Cobble Pond New Yorker.
