

Angus Auxiliary Announces '94 Scholarship Winners

The American Angus Auxiliary recently announced its 1994 scholarship recipients and distributed $8,000 in scholarships at the American Angus Breeders' Futurity in Louisville, Ky., in early August.

Jennifer Hawkins, Mason, Mich., won the $1,100 first prize scholarship in the women's division. The 18-year-old daughter of David and Kathleen Hawkins, Jennifer will be a pre-med student this fall at Michigan

State University.

Other scholarship winners were: Shannon Grote, Mason, Texas, second; Monica Feeser, Taneytown, Md., third; Christy Bell, Snellville, Ga., fourth; and Neenah Hill, Bidwell, Ohio, fifth.

These five women are eligible to compete for the 1995 Miss American Angus title. She will be crowned at the NAILE Super ROV Angus Show in Louisville, Ky., in November.

Dru Uden, Franklin, Neb., was the recipient of the men's first-prize scholarship of $1,100. Dru is the 18-year old son of Vance and Connie Uden. He will attend Northeastern Junior College, Sterling, Colo., this fall studying ag production.

Other men scholarship winners include: Sean Sharma, Williamsport, Ind., second; Tyler Byrd, Red Bluff, Calif, third; Matthew Nipper, Pikeville, Tenn., fourth; and Joel Foshea, Cedar Hill, Texas, fifth.

The Angus Auxiliary funds this program through the sale of the Scholarship Heifer at the American Angus Futurity.

This year's scholarship heifer was donated by QB Land and Cattle Company, Caldwell, Ohio, and sold for $4,000 to the Glen Eilkmeier Family, Pipestone, Minn.

Scholarships are available to high school seniors. Those interested in applying for the Auxiliary's 1995 scholarship program should contact your state Auxiliary scholarship chairwoman.
