INTERNATIONAL SHOW SCENE

Angus reigned supreme at the 1999 Calgary Stampede, claiming title to both Supreme Champion bull and Supreme Champion female. Eighteen different beef breed shows were held during the 1999 Calgary Exhibition and Stampede. The bull and female champions from each show were brought together to compete for $5,000 and the supreme titles.

A panel of seven judges evaluated the animals and chose the Angus champions as winners. This is only the second time in the history of the show that one breed has won both bull and female championships.

Supreme champion bull, Cudlobe Stemwinder 41G, is a black Angus owned by Dyce and David Bolduc of Claresholm, Alberta. Supreme champion female, Red Stem Essence 42G, is a 2-year-old Red Angus owned by Lee and Dawn Wilson and the Miller Cattle Co. of Bashaw, Alberta. She was shown with a 1999 heifer calf at side.
