

NEWSMAKERS

Compiled by Megan Silveira, assistant editor

Within this “Newsmakers” column we share important news and accomplishments of our members, including state association activities, birth and marriage announcements, and news of Angus members’ passing.

In Passing

Philip T. “P.T.” McIntire, 99, White Post, Va., died July 29.

P.T. was born June 20, 1921, the son of Thomas and Ivy Russell Crouse McIntire. He was raised on a cattle and vegetable farm near Unger, W.Va.

P.T. walked 1½ miles to attend the one-room Timber Ridge School. In 1938 he began a two-year stint with the CCC Camp at Capon Park in Berkeley Springs, W.Va. While at the CCC Camp, he attended mechanical school in Elkins, W.Va.

He married Anna Catherine Gano June 21, 1941, in Winchester. P.T. then entered into the U.S. Army in 1941, and he trained and served in Washington State.

He ran a grocery and butcher shop in Berkeley Springs from 1945 to 1947. Following the sale of the store in 1948, he and Catherine moved to Clarke County. After living at Angus Acres for two years, they purchased the property in 1951.

P.T. was a member of Boyce Baptist Church, where he served as a member of the Board of Trustees for many years and also as Chairman of the Board. He was a member of Shenandoah Farms Baptist Church, where he was re-baptized in the Shenandoah River in August of 1998. He was a member of Treadwell Lodge for 64 years and was a Master Mason for 73 years, achieving 32nd degree; a member of Scottish Rite Temple for 50 years; and a member of Blue Ridge and Winchester Shrine Clubs. He was a member of Winchester Moose Lodge; a 60-year member of the Clarke County Ruritan, where he had 50 years of perfect attendance; and was director at Winchester Farm Credit for 17 years.

P.T. managed Milton Valley Farm in Clarke County for 26 years. He fox-hunted with Edward Durrell, competing in the 50-mile competitive trail rides at the Homestead in Bath Co., Va., as well as in local competitions. After Mr. Durrell’s passing, P.T. continued to fox-hunt and trail ride. He was a member of the Blue Ridge Hunt.

P.T. served as past president and manager of Northern Virginia Livestock for 30 years, was past president of Virginia Cattlemen’s Association. He was named Virginia Cattleman of the Year in 1980. He was also a past director of National Cattlemen’s Association in Denver, where he and Catherine attended meetings several times.

P.T. and his three sons farmed extensively in Clarke and Warren Counties, running P.T. McIntire & Sons, Inc.

P.T. is survived by his son, Ronald (Gina); three grandchildren; one great-grandson; and four step grandchildren.

Paul Gibbs, 78, died on April 20 after a courageous battle with cancer.

Introduced to the cattle industry by his grandfather, Gibbs was an active cattleman from a young age. He was a lifelong member of the American Angus Association and the Missouri Angus Association (MAA).

Always actively involved in the cattle business, Gibbs held a position as a regional manager for the Association, a field man for the MAA and a feed dealer for Purina.

Gibbs was also a member of the Missouri Cattlemen’s Association (MCA). He served on several committees, such as Cooper County Cattlemen’s board, MCA Executive and the Beef House Committee.

For his service and dedication to the cattle industry, Gibbs received the 2013 Cattleman of the Year award from the MCA.

Angus Arrivals

On Saturday, Aug. 1, Kasey and Jared Brown welcomed Mary Rose Brown. She weighed 8 pounds (lb.), 8 ounces (oz). Kasey is the associate editor of the Angus Beef Bulletin®.

On Saturday, August 15, Julie and Matt Mais welcomed Olivia Jane Mais. She weighed 8 lb., 5 oz. Julie is the editor of the Angus Journal.

▲