

Angus Storm Denver

Angus activities at the 92nd National Western Stock Show will kickoff Jan. 14 with the junior Angus show followed by the Super Roll of Victory (ROV) female show. Angus activities will conclude Saturday with the carload and pen shows in the Yards.

Eighteen other cattle breed associations will be conducting shows and/or sales at this year's National Western.

Beef breeds holding their 1998 national shows and sales at the National Western include Braunvieh, Gelbvieh, Hereford, Limousin, Polled Hereford, Salers, Shorthorn, South Devon and Tarentaise.

Great Rodeo Action Featured

Two Professional Bull Riders performances and a pair of "shoot 'em up" Wild West Shows are new features scheduled during the National Western. The new events along with the traditional 23 Professional Rodeo Cowboy Association (PRCA) rodeos and two Mexican Rodeo Extravanzas will be featured in the adjacent Denver Coliseum.

With a roster of the world's top cowboys, the Professional Bull Riders competition is scheduled Jan. 12 and 13 at 7:30 p.m.

The Wild West Shows, scheduled in the Events Center on Jan. 17 at 7:30 p.m. and Jan. 18 at 3:30 p.m., will offer a variety of Old West entertainment.

In a style reminiscent of Buffalo Bill and Calamity Jane productions, the Wild West programs will include daredevil Roman trick riding, Indian war dances, shoot-outs and holdups, a Longhorn cattle drive, can-can girls, music and more.

Tickets to all the shows also include admission to the National Western show grounds and exhibits. PRCA rodeos run from Jan. 15 to Jan. 26, and the Mexican Rodeo Extravanzas are scheduled Jan. 11 at 7:30 p.m. and Jan. 12 at 3 p.m.

Reserved PRCA rodeo seats are priced from $8 to $15. Mexican rodeo seats are $13 and $15. The Pro Bull Riders range from $12 to $25, and all Events Center tickets are $10.

Mail-order ticket forms may be obtained by writing the National Western Box Office, 4655 Humboldt St., Denver, CO 80216, or by calling (303)297-1166.
