

Open Shows

2004 Alabama Angus Ass'n Spring Sale, Cullman • April 17

► Grand champion bull, Hillcrest Saugahatchee 09H2, by Hillcrest Farm, Holly Pond. He's a Sept. 2002 son of Leachman Saugahatchee 3000C. Pictured are (from left) Jay Evers, Alabama Angus Ass'n president; Amie and Meghan Hill, both of Holly Pond, consignors; George, Megan, Kyle and Jacqueline Fincher, all of Auburn, purchasers.

► Grand champion female, Rodgers Erica 9598, by Rodgers Farm, Taft, Tenn. She's a Sept. 1998 daughter of Congaree Sleep Easy E27 and has a Sept. 2003 daughter of Bon-View New Design 878. Pictured are (from left) Evers; Bobby Redman, Taft, Tenn., consignor; Caleb Ficken, Huntsville, buyer of the calf; and Chris Jones, Blountsville, buyer of the cow.

► Reserve grand champion bull, N-Bar EXT Traveler 234, by Kenneth Corbin (right), Chickamauga, Ga. He's a Feb. 2003 son of GDAR SVF Traveler 234D. Evers is also pictured.

► Reserve grand champion female, Garrison 842 Ms. Ban Skymere, by Carl Garrison (right), Thorsby. She's a Feb. 1998 daughter of Tehama Bando 155. Evers is also pictured.

► Highlander Ranch, Opelika, Ala., donated a heifer that sold for more than $15,000 to benefit the Dyar Scholarship Fund. A consortium of more than 30 Angus enthusiasts and, finally, Macedon Farms, purchased the donated heifer, Highlander Queen Rella 36-NF.

Correction to June 'Open Shows'

The reserve grand champion bull at the 2004 Kentucky Angus Sweepstakes Show & Sale was incorrectly identified in the June issue. Twin Creek Dateline -219, by Twin Creek Angus, Bradfordsville, Ky., was the actual winner. He is a Sept. 2002 son of Vermilion Dateline 7078. The show was March 5-6 in Louisville, Ky. Ray Apple, Rydal, Ga., evaluated the 44 entries.