American Royal elects new officers

The American Royal Board of Governors conducted its annual meeting Feb. 10, 2016, at Cerner world headquarters, where Angie Stanland of Cerner was elected the 2016 Chairman of the Board.

"I am honored to be elected chairman of the board for the American Royal," Stanland said. "The American Royal is one of Kansas City's most authentic assets, and we continue to be respected as one of the very best livestock shows in the country, the world's largest barbecue competition, and contributing more than $1 million dollars in direct support of our mission of youth and education."

Officers elected to the American Royal Board of Directors include Stanland, chairman; Charles Tetrick, Walz Tetrick Advertising, chairman-elect and treasurer; and Allen Dillingham, The Builders' Association; corporate secretary.

"I am excited to helm this tremendous organization, which has a rich heritage and bright future," said Stanland.

The American Royal Association is a not-for-profit 501(c)(3) corporation that has been a Kansas City tradition since 1899. Each year, more than 270,000 people attend events at the American Royal Complex. In 2015, the Royal gave more than $1 million in scholarship and educational awards.

In addition to its educational mission, the American Royal generates $60 million in economic impact, $4.4 million in local tax revenue and supports 450 jobs. For further information, see www.americanroyal.com.
