

Sinclair Cattle Co. to Donate 2010 Angus Foundation Heifer

by Kelli Armbruster

The Angus Foundation announced today that Jeff Ward and Duncan Smith, owners of Sinclair Cattle Co., Warfordsburg, Pa., will donate the 2010 Angus Foundation Heifer, set to sell in January 2010 at the National Western Stock Show (NWSS) in Denver, Colo.

Sinclair K Beauty 8R102 E118 is the heifer chosen to represent the Sinclair program. A January 2008 daughter of RR Rito 707, this female descends from the N-Bar herd on her maternal side. Expected to calve in late February 2010, the heifer was to be displayed at the World Angus Forum in Calgary, Alta., Canada, July 13-16.

“We are honored and humbled by the donation of Sinclair K Beauty from the Sinclair herd. This is an opportunity for Angus breeders to add proven genetics to their herds, while simultaneously supporting the future of the Angus breed,” Angus Foundation President Milford Jenkins says. “We are extremely grateful to Sinclair Cattle Company for their generous donation and commend their dedication to supporting education, research and the next generation of Angus breeders through the Angus Foundation.”

The sale of the Angus Foundation Heifer Package, an annual fundraising tradition initiated in 1980, supports the Angus Foundation, the not-for-profit affiliate of the American Angus Association that funds and supports programs involving education, youth and research in the Angus breed and agricultural industry.

“We are honored for the opportunity to offer this outstanding daughter of RR Rito 707 as the 2010 Angus Foundation Heifer Package,” Jeff Ward, Sinclair Cattle Co., says.
