Strong competition has kept the Angus breed at the forefront of an ever-changing beef industry. That occurs in many ways, including the showing. The American Angus Association recognized top honors in the 2013-2014 Roll of Victory (ROV) show season during the Awards Recognition Breakfast Nov. 6 as part of the first-ever Angus Means Business National Convention & Trade Show in Kansas City, Mo. Other division winners were recognized days later during the Super-Point ROV Angus Show at the North American International Livestock Exposition (NAILE) in Louisville, Ky.

“Angus is fortunate to have thousands of breeders who are motivated by continuous improvement in cattle genetics,” says Bryce Schumann, Association CEO. “We see that in the showing and in pastures every day, in all parts of the United States.”

During the 2013-2014 show season, more than 2,000 cattle participated for points during regular-point shows and super-point ROV shows throughout the country. A complete list of winners was published in the September 2014 Angus Journal. Those honored at the awards breakfast Nov. 6 included the Show Heifer and Show Bull of the Year, as well as the Breeder of the Year.

► The ROV Show Heifer of the Year was a tie between EXAR Winnie 5291, owned by Sydney Schnoor, Chowchilla, Calif.; and Cherry Knoll Pleasant Elsa, owned by Logan Wright, Philippi, W.Va.
