More than 50 Angus enthusiasts of all ages helped raise $10,640 for education, youth and research at the 11th annual Angus Foundation Golf Tournament, July 12, at the Felicita Golf Course in Harrisburg, Pa. The money raised will contribute to the Foundation's first capital campaign, Vision of Value: Campaign for Angus, which aims to raise $11 million by Dec. 31, 2011.

"Our goal with the golf tournament is to create an atmosphere for our players to enjoy warm Angus fellowship with other Angus breeders and youth from across the country, while simultaneously raising funds for the Angus Foundation," Angus Foundation President Milford Jenkins says. "Without the generous sponsorship support and the participation of our players, this event wouldn't be possible."
