Ohio Cattlemen's Association Announces Best of the Buckeye Program

Ohio seedstock breeders will have an enhanced marketing opportunity through the Best of the Buckeye program beginning in the 2014 show season, announced the Ohio Cattlemen's Association (OCA) at the 2013 Ohio State Fair.

The Best of the Buckeye program, hosted by OCA in conjunction with the Ohio Beef Expo and the Ohio State Fair, will recognize top-placing Ohio-born and -raised calves, along with the breeder and exhibitor, in each breed division at the two shows. Thanks to generous sponsors, $45,000 will be given through premiums, scholarships and awards. This year's sponsors are Green Oak Farms, heifer division; Steve Rauch, steer division; and Franklin Equipment, scholarship.

As the Best of the Buckeye committee finalizes details in the upcoming months, they encourage Ohio breeders as they sell cattle this fall to make note that calves sold to Ohio youth may be eligible and nominated for the program. Nominations can also be made post-sale, and families can nominate calves they've raised and plan to show.

The deadline for Best of the Buckeye nominations is January 15 at $25 per head, which is paid by the breeder. Nomination information will be available on the OCA website, ohiocattle.org/best-of-the-buckeye. All nominations will need to include a copy of registration papers, exhibitor and breeder information and a signed affidavit that the nominated cattle were born in Ohio. For spring-born heifers of the current calendar year, the nomination deadline will be June 20.

For more information, contact the OCA at 614-873-6736, email beef@ohiobeef.org or visit www.ohiocattle.org.
