Angus breeders from across the nation consigned 63 lots to the 2007 National Western Angus Bull Sale Jan. 11 in Denver, Colo. The sale, which is the only sale managed by the American Angus Association, averaged $4,765 on 63 lots. A panel of five judges including Brian Barragree, Absarokee, Mont.; Mike Jones, Folsom, La.; Greg McCurry, Sedgwick, Kan.; Doug Parrett, Urbana, Ill.; and Matt Perrier, Eureka, Kan., evaluated the bulls and picked division and overall champions.

Werner Angus, Rapids City, Ill., consigned the grand champion bull, Werner Wild Fire 96. He's a January 2006 son of SAV 8180 Traveler 004 and first won late winter calf champion. He was the high-selling lot and sold to Ankony Angus Corp. Inc., Clarkesville, Ga., for $55,000.

WCC Midtown R220 claimed reserve grand champion bull. Wilson Cattle Co., Cloverdale, Ind., consigned the November 2005 son of BR Midland that first won early winter calf champion. Christenson 4-D, Delaware, Okla.; Appalachian Cattle, Somerville, Tenn.; JCG Angus Farm, Kiln, Miss.; and Jaysen Manning, New Albany, Miss., purchased the second-high-selling lot for $25,000.

The third-high-selling lot included Da-Es-Ro Frontier 5018 211, consigned by Da-Es-Ro Angus Farms, Columbus Junction, Iowa, and purchased by Belle Point Ranch, Lavaca, Ark., for $20,000.

Riverbend Ranch, Idaho Falls, Idaho, sold Riverbend Top Hand for $12,000. Turner Meadow Ranch, Wills Point, Texas, purchased the lot.

A complete list of winners follows.
