

Going for the Green

Angus enthusiasts tee-up for the eighth annual golf tournament.

Sunshine and little bit of wind kept things interesting for the 73 players who took to the greens July 15 to support the Angus Foundation. A record number of golfers participated in the Angus Foundation's 8th Annual Golf Tournament, hosted by The Legacy Golf Club, Norwalk, Iowa, in conjunction with the 2008 National Junior Angus Show (NJAS).

"With a new record of 73 players, this year's golf tournament was another successful fundraiser for the Angus Foundation," Foundation President Milford Jenkins says.

Old and young golfers alike were challenged by the scenic course and were happy to return to the clubhouse to enjoy a Certified Angus Beef® (CAB®) steak lunch at the awards ceremony, compliments of Freedman Meats of Houston, Texas.

The winners of Flight A, representing Iowa, included players Jerry Carrico, Redfield; Jean Burch, Runnels; and Josh Barnes and Troy Tickner, both of Adel. Winners of Flight B included Scott Bush, Britton, S.D.; Dick Rogen, Brandon, S.D.; Chris Styles, Brentford, S.D.; and Jeff Creamer, Montrose, Colo. Winners of Flight C included Carole Silveira, Firebaugh, Calif.; Calvin Levisay, Creston, Calif.; Jon Malmberg, Bowling Green, Ky.; and Kyle Kemp, Bridgeport, Texas.

"We're very appreciative of the players and sponsors who help make this event possible for the Angus Foundation and who allow us to advance our education, youth and research activities for the betterment of the entire Angus breed," Jenkins says, "We invite others to share in this fun activity with us in Perry, Georgia, in 2009."
