

The American Angus Association's Roll of Victory concept is divided among 14 shows. With the addition of the new Atlantic National show, the program includes 15 events.

Four of the national shows are designated Super Point Shows. They are the National Western, the North American International Livestock Exposition (NAILE), the Western National Angus Futurity ("Reno"), and the All-American Angus Breeders' Futurity.

Eleven additional shows are labeled Recognition Point Shows and these events are rotated throughout the country among state fairs and regional shows allowing wide geographic impact and opportunity for breeders in the farthest reaches to participate. Points awarded for winning at these shows are graduated for different placings. Points are accumulated throughout the course of the show year which runs from July 1 to June 30 of the following year.

Here listed are the tabulations for the year just concluded. We will soon begin the 1988-89 circuit with the All-American Angus Breeders' Futurity in Louisville, July 31.
