We dedicate our 2010 Production Sale to the memory of

Morris H. Eisenbeisz

MAY 8, 1927 - JUNE 8, 2009

THE FARMER

The farmer had a great view of God's world from the seat of his tractor and through the windshield of his pickup. He had proof God was there when he saw his new calf crop each spring. He saw God's handiwork in the golden fields of grain, the corn standing tall, and the stacks of alfalfa waiting to be hauled home. The farmer knew he didn't have to be in church to talk to God. He prayed for rain, a good market, decent crops, and suitable calving weather, and he gave thanks for his blessings. The old farmer could leave this world knowing he was a fine husband, raised good children, and left the land better than he'd found it. He believed a person should do the best he could with what he was given. As a farmer, he believed that, after death, his body would once again be part of the earth, to be nourished by the earth, sun, and rain. He was going Home. Good-bye, our beloved farmer.

-Glenda 2009

Morris Eisenbeisz was born May 8, 1927 near Bowdle, SD, to Fred and Anna Eisenbeisz. He was raised on the family farm with one brother and five sisters. After his 8th grade education, he began farming with his dad.

Morris married Allene Bieber on December 16, 1948. They continued to farm. Morris and his father bought their first purebred Angus cows in 1956 and established Hilltop Angus Farm. Morris and Allene continued to farm and milk cows, as they added to their Angus herd. In 1976, their son, Blake, joined them in the Angus business and they began production testing with AHIR. They held their first Hilltop Angus Production Sale in 1979. Morris continued farming and feeding cows until early March of 2009 when his cancer returned and his health failed. He was hospitalized in Aberdeen and Bowdle beginning in late April until passing away on June 8, 2009, at the Bowdle hospital.

Morris is survived by his wife, Allene; two sons, Blake (Glenda) of Bowdle; Miles (Lori) of Bowdle; Hope (Doug) Larson of Bowdle; and Heidi (Brian) Roshone of Canistota, SD; 12 grandchildren, 5 great-grandchildren, and three sisters.

We think that in terms of real true performance and solid pedigree, he is a good as it gets. Don't miss this outstanding herd sire prospect on sale day.

SAV Final Answer 0035 is one of the elite calving-ease sires of the Angus breed. His offspring come easy, then grow and perform well. Eight bull calves have an average birth weight of 76 pounds, and this was our number one weaning weight sire group. Lot 28 will be an excellent calving-ease prospect with excellent performance numbers. His 205-day WW was 777 pounds with a ratio of 107. Bull buyers, you will really like these Final Answer sons.
